

FCE Part 3, page 40

Removed sentences

- A Mrs Stevens said: 'I was becoming increasingly desperate because he is 82, and I am 78; I was beginning to think I would never see him again.'
- B Mr Rider immediately flew back with his wife to England to meet his long-lost sister.
- C A search of New York addresses was unsuccessful.
- D The Riders had just returned from a six-week break in London, which explained the unanswered calls.
- E Mrs Stevens, 78, tried repeatedly to make contact again, but each time her efforts were in vain.
- F Mrs Stevens phoned every day for six weeks, but her calls all went unanswered.
- G Eileen Stevens lost touch with Percival Rider, a former army bandsman, in 1962.